STATISTICS OF INCOME, FROM RETURNS OF NET INCOME FOR 1926

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
Washington, D. C., September, 24, 1928.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit herewith a report comprising a statistical analysis of the income tax returns for 1926 filed by individuals, corporations, and partnerships during 1927 and of the estate tax returns, irrespective of the date of death of the decedent, likewise filed during 1927. The report also contains an historical presentation of the income and tax liability reported by individuals and corporations since the inception of the present period of income taxation under the sixteenth amendment to the Constitution.

The income tax returns for 1926 were filed under the provisions of the revenue act of 1926. The year for which the income tax returns are filed is in general the calendar year. However, approximately 8 per cent of the corporation returns showing net income of \$2,000 and over, representing nearly $11\frac{1}{4}$ per cent of the total net income for corporations, and a negligible number of individual returns are for a fiscal year other than the calendar year. These returns are tabulated with the calendar year returns for the year in which the greater part of their accounting period falls. Thus there are included with the returns for the calendar year 1926, returns whose fiscal year ends after June 30, 1926, but not later than June 30, 1927.

The statistics contained in this report are based on the taxpayers' returns as received, unaudited except for a preliminary examination to insure proper execution of the return. All income tax returns filed by individuals having net income of $5,000 and over and all returns filed by corporations, regardless of the size of net income, pass through the statistical section, and the data are tabulated from each of these returns. A sample of approximately 250,000 of the returns filed by individuals reporting net income of less than $5,000 was analyzed, and the data obtained considered as fairly representative of such returns. The average results from this sample group were applied to the total number of individual returns, showing net income of less than $5,000, to determine the data as published for these returns.

Throughout this report "net income" means the excess of gross income, as defined in the revenue act effective for the year for which the returns are filed, over the deductions claimed by the taxpayer under the provisions of the respective acts; and for the purpose of distribution by income classes, the net income of individuals includes "capital net gain from sale of assets held more than two years." Similarly "deficit" means excess of deductions over gross income. Credits allowed individuals, such as personal exemption, credit for dependents, "net loss for prior year," and "loss from the sale of capital assets held more than two years" (beginning with 1924) are not included in deductions; neither is the special credit of $2,000 for domestic corporations having net income of $25,000 or less, nor "net loss for prior year," included in deductions in arriving at net income of corporations.

The classification on which the corporation returns are distributed into industrial groups is based on the predominant business of the corporations. The groups, however, do not represent corporations engaged purely in the industries in which they are classified, due to closely affiliated corporations filing consolidated returns, which include the income and deductions of the subsidiary or affiliated concerns. If such subsidiary or affiliated concerns could be classified independently of the consolidated returns, they would fall in industrial divisions other than the ones in which they are included.

The data for States and minor civil divisions, although compiled from returns filed in each locality, do not represent what may be called the geographical distribution of income, there being no way of ascertaining from the income tax returns the amount of income originating in the respective States or the amount of tax paid on that basis, as income reported by an individual or corporation in one State may have been derived from sources in other States.

An individual files his income tax return in the collection district in which his legal residence or principal place of business is located, and a corporation files its income tax return in the collection district in which its principal place of business or the principal office or agency is located.

The amount of income tax liability returned for 1926, shown in the tabulations in this volume, is not altogether comparable with the amount of taxes collected during the calendar year 1927. A variety of factors is responsible for this discrepancy, several of the important of which are—

1. The amount of tax originally reported on the returns does not always represent precisely the amount of tax paid for the reason that an adjustment may be made after the data have been taken from the original returns for the statistics of income. These adjustments may result in additional assessments, thereby increasing the tax liability; or, in certificates of overassessment, thereby decreasing the tax liability. An amended return has the same effect as an adjustment.

2. Income and profits taxes paid to foreign governments or possessions of the United States are deductible from income taxes payable to the United States but are not deducted in the amount of tax liability shown herein. The aggregate amount of income and profits taxes paid to foreign governments or possessions of the United States reported by individuals and corporations is, however, shown.

3. The amount of income taxes in fiscal year returns included in this tabulation may not represent taxes collected during 1927 on such returns. Fiscal year returns are required to be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the third month after the end of the fiscal year and payment, as in the case of calendar year returns, is required at the time when the return is filed, or in four quarterly installments. The first of the quarterly installments is due when the return is filed. Thus, during the calendar year 1927, collections were made of part or all of the taxes in returns for fiscal years ended from January 31,

1926 (the last quarterly installment payment on which was due on or before January 15, 1927), to September 30, 1927 (the filing of returns and the full payment or first installment payment on which for the fiscal year ended on the latter date was due on or before December 15, 1927); whereas, as described above, there are excluded from these statistics those returns for fiscal years ending prior to July 1, 1926, and subsequent to June 30, 1927.

4. Delays in payment due to financial embarrassment, death, liquidation of business, or any other cause result in collection of taxes after the close of the year in which such taxes are due, and the classification of such collections as "back taxes," because made in a subsequent year. Certain amounts are uncollectible due likewise to the above causes.

5. Current collections include such interest and penalty items as are received during the year in connection with delinquent payments on returns for 1926.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX RETURNS

The returns for 1926 filed by individuals numbered 4,138,092, of which 2,470,990 were taxable and 1,667,102 nontaxable. The aggregate net income was $21,958,505,649 and the tax liability $732,470,790. As compared with the returns filed for the previous year the number for 1926 decreased by 32,959, or seventy-nine one-hundredths of 1 per cent. The total net income shows an increase of $63,929,246, or twenty-nine one-hundredths of 1 per cent, whereas the tax shows a decrease of $2,084,393, or twenty-eight one-hundredths of 1 per cent. The average net income is $5,306.43, the average amount of tax liability $177.01, and the average tax rate 3.34 per cent. For the preceding year the average net income was $5,249.16, the average amount of tax liability was $176.11, and the average tax rate 3.35 per cent. The proportion of the population filing returns was 3.52 per cent, which for the preceding year was 3.60 per cent.

DISTRIBUTION BY STATES AND BY INCOME CLASSES OF NUMBER OF RETURNS, NET INCOME AND TAX (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The distribution of the returns of individuals and the net income and tax reported therein, by States and Territories, are shown in basic Table 1, pages 71-73. Table 2, pages 74-76 distributes the same data by income classes.

SIMPLE AND CUMULATIVE DISTRIBUTION BY INCOME CLASSES, OF NUMBER OF RETURNS, NET INCOME AND TAX (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The distribution of the returns, by income classes, is exhibited in the following table, which shows the number of returns filed, the amount of net income and tax reported; also cumulative totals and relative percentages. In basic Table 3, pages 77-79 a similar distribution of the number of returns, net income, and tax is shown by more detailed income classes.

CLASSIFICATION, BY SEX AND FAMILY RELATIONSHIP (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The following table shows the number of individual returns and the net income distributed according to sex and family relationship. In basic Tables 4 and 5 (pp. 80-85) similar distributions of the number of returns, net income, and tax are shown by income classes and by States and Territories.

Distribution of individual returns, by sex and family relationship, calendar year 1926

INCOME EXEMPT FROM NORMAL TAX (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The net income specifically exempt from normal tax through personal exemption, credits for dependents, dividends, interest on Government obligations not wholly exempt from tax, capital net gain from sale of assets held more than two years, net loss for prior year, and net income subject to normal tax are shown in the following table:

Net income exempt from and amount subject to normal tax, individual returns, calendar year 1926

CAPITAL NET LOSS FROM SALE OF ASSETS HELD MORE THAN TWO YEARS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

Under the revenue acts of 1924 and 1926, loss from the sale of capital assets held more than two years is not deductible in arriving at ordinary net income subject to normal tax and surtax, if by deducting such loss the tax is less than by taking a tax credit of $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the amount of such loss. The revenue acts of 1918 and 1921 permitted such loss to be deducted in arriving at ordinary net income. In order, therefore, that the amounts shown as "net income" and "general deductions" in the Statistics of Income for 1924-1926 be made comparable with prior years, it is necessary that such losses be deducted from "net income" and that "general deductions" be increased by a like amount. These adjustments have not been made in the "net income" and "general deduction" figures shown in the Statistics of Income for these years.

Capital net loss from sale of assets held more than 2 years reported on individual income tax returns for 1926-----	$34, 574, 016
Tax credit of $12\frac{1}{2}$ per cent-----	4, 321, 752

NET LOSS FOR PRIOR YEAR (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The net loss during a given taxable year in a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer, as specifically defined in the revenue acts of 1921, 1924, and 1926, is allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the succeeding taxable year. If such net loss is in excess of the net income (computed without such deduction) for that year, the amount of the excess may be carried over and allowed as a deduction in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year.

The net losses for prior years have not been included in the "deduction" and are therefore not deducted from "net income" shown in this volume. The "net loss for prior year" reported on individual income tax returns for the years 1922 to 1926 inclusive, is given below:

Return for year:	Amount
1922-----	$45, 220, 859
1923-----	34, 266, 149
1924-----	29, 869, 182
1925-----	32, 321, 310
1926-----	27, 411, 767

CREDIT OF 25 PER CENT OF TAX ON EARNED NET INCOME (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The credit of 25 per cent of the tax on earned net income applies to the tax on the first $5,000 of taxable net income, and if specifically earned, to the tax on an amount not exceeding $10,000 under the revenue act of 1924 applicable to returns for 1924, and to an amount not exceeding $20,000 under the revenue act of 1926 applicable to returns for 1925 and 1926.

Earned net income tax credit reported on returns for the years 1924-1926 is as follows:

Return for year:	Amount
1924-----	$30, 637, 463
1925-----	24, 570, 183
1926-----	24, 646, 993

INCOME FROM BUSINESS REPORTED BY INDIVIDUALS HAVING NET INCOME FROM ALL SOURCES OF $5,000 AND OVER

The income derived from business other than from partnerships reported by individuals whose net income from all sources was $5,000 and over is shown according to the nature of the business in the following tables for 1926 and 1925. These data represent only such amounts reported by individuals as were derived from business operations conducted as sole proprietors and do not necessarily indicate the principal occupation of, or the total income reported by, the person making the return.

The income from business on the returns showing net income of less than $5,000 is not given by industrial divisions for 1926, as the sample of the returns in this class previously referred to was not sufficiently comprehensive to determine the number of businesses in each industrial division.

WHOLLY AND PARTIALLY TAX-EXEMPT OBLIGATIONS (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The following tabulation shows the wholly and partially tax-exempt securities owned and interest received therefrom, by nature of obligation, reported by individuals having net income of $5,000 and over. The amount owned and interest received, by income class distribution, are shown in basic Table 8 (p. 92).

RETURNS, BY COUNTIES AND CITIES (INDIVIDUAL RETURNS)

The number of returns of individuals filed for the calendar year 1926, by counties, cities, townships, and post offices, is shown in basic Table 11 (pp. 178–312). This tabulation does not represent an exact count of returns for each civil division, but is a very close approximation of the number of returns filed. The following method is used: Index cards of the returns of net income filed in each collection district are prepared in the offices of the collectors of internal revenue. These cards are arranged by counties and cities, and the number is calculated by measurement on the basis of a certain number of cards to the inch.

PARTNERSHIP RETURNS OF INCOME

Partnership returns, except for the war excess-profits tax of 1917, are not subject to direct assessment, the income being reported in the individual returns filed by the copartners according to their distributive share, whether distributed or not.

The number of returns of net income filed by partnerships from 1917 to 1926, inclusive, is as follows:

Year:	Number	Year:	Number
1917-----	31, 701	1922-----	287, 959
1918-----	100, 728	1923-----	304, 996
1919-----	175, 898	1924-----	321, 158
1920-----	240, 767	1925-----	309, 414
1921-----	259, 359	1926-----	295, 425

CORPORATION INCOME TAX RETURNS

Corporation income tax returns for 1926 numbered 455,320, of which 258,134 show net income aggregating $9,673,402,889 and tax $1,229,797,243. For the calendar year 1925 corporations filed 430,072 returns, of which 252,334 show net income totaling $9,583,683,697 and tax of $1,170,331,206. The tax rate for 1926 is 13½ per cent as compared with 13 per cent for 1925. Had the returns for 1926 been made at 13 per cent, the tax would have been about $1,184,249,175, or $45,548,068 less than at the higher rate.

DISTRIBUTION, BY INDUSTRIAL GROUPS, OF NUMBER OF RETURNS, INCOME, AND TAX (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The table immediately following shows the returns of corporations distributed by industrial groups and segregated according to "Corporations reporting net income," and "Corporations reporting no net income." Basic Table 12 (p. 314), shows the returns distributed by States and Territories and by those showing net income and no net income.

In analyzing the data compiled for corporations classified under "Finance—banking, insurance, real estate and holding companies, stockbrokers, etc.," allowance should be made for the two special deductions from gross income permitted life insurance companies. These special deductions, totaling approximately $400,000,000, represent (1) the excess of 4 per cent of the mean of reserve funds over the tax-exempt interest received by the company, and (2) 2 per cent of the reserve held for deferred dividends. (See pars. (2) and (4) of subdivision (a) of sec. 245 of the revenue act of 1926.)

These special deductions for life insurance companies in basic Tables 13 and 14 are included in "Miscellaneous expense" under "Disbursements," although they are not expense items.

NET LOSS FOR PRIOR YEAR (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The net loss during a given taxable year in a trade or business regularly carried on by the taxpayer, as specifically defined in the revenue acts of 1921, 1924, and 1926, is allowed as a deduction in computing the net income of the taxpayer for the succeeding taxable year. If such net loss is in excess of the net income (computed without such deduction) for that year, the amount of the excess may be carried over and allowed as a deduction in computing the net income for the next succeeding taxable year.

The net losses for prior years have not been included in the "deduction" and are therefore not deducted from "net income" shown in this volume.

Net loss for prior year reported in the corporation returns filed for the years 1922 to 1926, inclusive, is given below:

Return for year:	Amount
1922.....	$501,780,287
1923.....	578,307,088
1924.....	219,727,166
1925.....	243,078,565
1926.....	235,851,912

AMOUNT OF CORPORATION NET INCOME EXEMPT FROM, AND AMOUNT
SUBJECT TO TAX

The corporation net income for the current year subject to tax is reduced by a credit of $2,000 allowed corporations with net incomes of $25,000 or less. For corporations with net incomes in excess of $25,000, but not in excess of $25,270, the method of computing the tax, as provided for in the revenue act, affords a variable amount of credit, but in every case less than $2,000. A deduction for "Net loss for prior year" from net income for the current year is likewise permitted. The net income reported, also the net income not subject to, and the amount subject to tax in corporation returns for 1926 are shown below:

Net income.....	$9, 673, 402, 889
Net income not subject to tax:
Net loss for prior year.....	$235, 851, 912
Specific credit of $2,000 for corporations with net income, not in excess of $25,000, and a variable amount of credit for cor- porations with net income in excess of $25,000 but not in excess of $25,270 (esti- mate).....	318, 659, 718
Total.....	554, 511, 630
Net income subject to tax.....	9, 118, 891, 259

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The amount of cash and stock dividends paid to shareholders on the capital stock of domestic corporations, as reported in the corporation income-tax returns for 1926, is shown by States and Territories in basic Table 12 and by industrial divisions in basic Table 13. A presentation of the aggregate amounts of dividends distributed for the years 1922 to 1926, inclusive, for all corporations is given below.

RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The income statement of corporation receipts and disbursements, also net profit (or deficit) deductions, net income, tax, net profit after deducting tax, and cash and stock dividends, distributed by major industrial groups, is shown in basic Table 13, pages 315-326. Part 1 shows the data for all corporations, part 2 for corporations reporting net income, and part 3 for corporations reporting no net income. Basic Table 14, pages 327-329 shows for all corporations the income and disbursement items expressed in percentages of total receipts and the profits from sales in percentages of gross sales.

PERCENTAGE OF GROSS PROFITS FROM SALES TO GROSS SALES (CORPORATION RETURNS)

The following table presents for the years 1922-1926, inclusive, comparable percentages for gross profits from sales to gross sales. In basic Table 10 of Statistics of Income for 1924 and 1925, the items for "gross profits from sales" are expressed as percentages of total receipts, while in the reports for 1922, 1923, and 1926 they are shown as percentages of gross sales.

For this purpose gross profits from sales for industrial divisions, in which service is the controlling factor, are eliminated as not being comparable with industries in which the sale of commodities predominates. These divisions are transportation and other public utilities; service—professional, amusements, hotels, etc.; finance—banking, insurance, and related business; combinations—predominant industry not ascertainable; and inactive concerns.

The table affords only an approximate comparability of the industrial divisions, due to consolidated returns being filed for closely affiliated corporations, and as elsewhere stated, although the returns are classified on the basis of the predominant business activity, such consolidated returns frequently include income from businesses which, if they could be classified independently of the consolidated returns, would fall in industrial divisions other than the ones in which they are included.

CORPORATION RETURNS, DISTRIBUTED BY SIZE OF NET INCOME AND DEFICIT

The following table shows for corporations, distributed by size of net income and size of deficit, the number of returns, amount of net income and deficit, amount of tax, and relative percentages. Basic Table 17 (pp. 356-358) shows the returns distributed by size of net income and deficit, by industrial divisions.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES (CORPORATION RETURNS)

In the tables immediately following is shown for 359,449 corporations out of 455,320 filing income tax returns a summary statement of the principal assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1926, or at the close of the fiscal year nearest thereto, distributed by major industrial divisions, and a comparative statement showing by size of net income, the number of corporation returns filed and the number of balance sheets tabulated. The discrepancy between the number of returns filed and the balance sheets tabulated is caused by lack of data for assets and liabilities. In Table 18 (pp. 360-401) are shown the same data for corporations reporting net income and no net income, distributed by income classes for all industries in aggregate and for each major industrial group separately.

"MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS" IN ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

In the analysis of the balance sheets for the tabulation of assets and liabilities, items not otherwise segregated are included in "Miscellaneous items," some of which are:

Miscellaneous assets.—Investments in affiliated companies; stocks and bonds other than tax-exempt obligations; loans, mortgages, etc., excepting such as are reported by banks which are included in "notes receivable"; patents, good will, formulas, trade-marks, etc.

Miscellaneous liabilities.—Reserves; accrued expenses; unadjusted credits; deposits (time, saving, demand, etc.) reported by banks; reserves, other funds, capital stock, and surplus for life insurance companies.

Assets and liabilities—Statement from income tax returns of corporations submitting balance sheets, showing major items of assets and liabilities as of December 31, 1926, or at close of fiscal year nearest thereto, by major industrial divisions

CORPORATION FISCAL YEAR RETURNS

The tabulation shown below is compiled from returns filed by corporations whose fiscal year is other than the calendar year. The returns in this compilation are also included in the general tables of corporation income throughout this report and the "statistics of income" for 1925, and fall within one or more of the following conditions: Full 12 months' period, net income of $2,000 and over; net deficit of $500,000 and over; gross sales or other items of $5,000,000 and over, or net loss for prior year deduction. The compilation does not include returns showing net income of less than $2,000 or deficit, unless such returns fall under one or more of the other conditions stated above. The data are presented by industrial groups in part 1, and by months ending the fiscal year in part 2, and by size of net income or deficit in part 3.

In addition to returns for full 12 months, a tabulation is shown comprising the returns filed for a fractional part of the year. These returns likewise fall under the same conditions as to net income, deficit, etc., as govern the returns used in the tabulation for full fiscal years.

The returns filed for a fractional part of the year represent reorganizations, consolidations, disintegrations, newly organized businesses, liquidating corporations, and changes from calendar year to fiscal year or vice versa, and are also included in the general corporation income tables in this report, and in the statistics of income for 1925.

Returns for fractional part of years 1926 and 1925

¹ Changes in the revenue acts affecting the comparability of statistical data from income tax returns of individuals are summarized on pp. 37-43.

² This total is exclusive of 7,635 returns of married women made separate from returns of husbands. In 1916 the net income on returns filed separately by husband and wife is combined and the total appears as one return. In all other years the returns of married women filed separately are included in their individual income classes independently of the husband's income.

NOTE.—The returns for 1913 are omitted, as they pertain only to the last 10 months of that year.

* Compiled from returns reporting net incomes of $1,000 and over.

10 Compiled from returns reporting net incomes of $1,500 and over.

In the study of the foregoing table it should be observed that in all years, excepting 1916, the income figures are composed of net gain items. Net losses, when shown on schedules within the returns, are transferred to general deductions, which also contain such other deductions as could not be allocated to any of the sources of income.

The sources of income items for 1916 represent gross income, the deductions not having been allocated to the several sources, but are given in aggregate under "General deductions."

The growth in the number of income tax returns of individuals, by States, from 1916 to 1926, inclusive, showing net income and tax, as well as the average net income and average tax per return, is exhibited in Table 10, pages 168-178.

CHANGES IN TAX LAWS AFFECTING THE COMPARABILITY OF STATISTICAL DATA FROM INCOME TAX RETURNS OF INDIVIDUALS

The following tables, A, B, and C, show for citizens and residents of the United States the minimum income for which income tax returns are required, the personal exemption, credits for dependents, and tax rates under the revenue acts of 1913 to 1926, inclusive.

- A. Individuals required to file returns, personal exemption, credit for dependents, and normal tax rates under the revenue acts, 1913 to 1926, inclusive.
- B. Surtax rates under the revenue acts, 1913 to 1926, inclusive.
- C. Supplemental income taxes and tax credits under the revenue acts of 1917 to 1926, inclusive.

¹ Husband and wife each to file a return unless combined income is included in joint return.

² Net income after deducting personal exemption, credit for dependents, dividends on stock of domestic corporations, and interest not wholly tax-exempt on U. S. obligations issued after Sept. 1, 1927.

³ Net income means "statutory" net income, i. e., the excess of gross income over the deductions as defined in the various revenue acts. Net income has been adjusted from time to time as follows:

(a) Amortization of buildings, machinery, equipment or other facilities constructed or acquired on or after Apr. 6, 1917, for the production of articles contributing to the prosecution of the war, are included to a reasonable amount in business deductions for 1918, 1919, 1920, and 1921.

(b) Contributions to charitable and scientific organizations, etc., not exceeding 15 per cent of the net income before deducting the contributions, are deducted for 1917 and subsequent years. For unlimited deduction of contributions see sec. 214, revenue act of 1924.

(c) Losses sustained in transactions entered into for profit but not connected with business or trade art not deductible for 1913 to 1915, inclusive. For 1916 and 1917, such losses are deductible to the extent of the aggregate income from such transactions; for 1918 and subsequent years, such losses are wholly deductible, excepting that for 1924 and subsequent years the loss, if incurred through the sale of capital assets held for more than 2 years, is deductible from total tax, to the extent of 12½ per cent of the loss. (See Table "C.")

(d) Net loss for prior year. The revenue act of 1918 provides, in the case of a net loss for any taxable year beginning after Oct. 31, 1918, and ending prior to Jan. 1, 1920, for the deduction of such loss from net income of the preceding year, a redetermination of taxes for the preceding year being made, if the net loss exceeds the net income for the preceding year the amount of such excess is to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year. For 1921 and subsequent years the revenue acts provide for net loss in any year beginning after Dec. 31, 1920, to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year and if such net loss exceeds the net income for the succeeding year, the amount of such excess is to be allowed in the next succeeding year.

⁴ No provision for head of family in revenue act of 1913.

⁵ Under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective.

⁶ Tax for 1923 reduced 25 per cent by credit or refund under the revenue act of 1924.

⁷ For net incomes of $5,000 and over, personal exemption is $2,000.

B.—Surtax rates under the revenue acts 1913–1926, inclusive

1918-1920 1921 1922-23 ³	1918-1920 1921 1922-23 ³	Taxpayer may elect to be taxed at 12½ per cent on capital net gain provided that the total tax, including the tax on capital net gain is not less than 12½ per cent of the total net income. (Loss in ordinary net income can not be deducted from capital net gain.)	Taxpayer may elect to be taxed at 12½ per cent on capital net gain if the tax would be greater than 12½ per cent by including capital net gain in ordinary net income. (Loss in ordinary net income may be deducted from capital net gain and the balance taxed at 12½ per cent.)	Capital net loss may be reported apart from ordinary net income and a tax credit of 12½ per cent of the capital net loss taken, if the tax thus produced is not less than the tax would be if the capital net loss were deducted from ordinary net income.	All net income up to $5,000 whether earned or not, and up to $10,000 if earned.	25 per cent of normal tax on earned net income. (Can not exceed 25 per cent of normal tax on ordinary net income.)	Do.
1924	1924						Do.
1925-26	1925-26			Same as 1924 act.	All net income up to $5,000 whether earned or not, and up to $20,000 if earned.	25 per cent of total tax on earned net income. (Can not exceed 25 per cent of normal tax on ordinary net income plus surtax on earned net income.)	Do.

¹ Beginning with 1921 the credit can not exceed the proportion of the total tax against which the credit is taken that the taxpayers' net income from sources without the United States bears to the entire net income.

² Deduction = $6,000 plus an amount equal to the same percentage of invested capital for taxable year as the average annual pre-war income was of pre-war invested capital (not less than 7 per cent nor more than 9 per cent). If not established during at least 1 whole year of the pre-war period, 8 per cent. If, during the pre-war period the individual had a deficit or a very small income from business, or if invested capital can not be determined, same per cent as that of representative businesses. (See sec 210, act of 1917.)

³ Taxes for 1923 reduced 25 per cent by credit or refund under the revenue act of 1924.

INSTRUCTIONS

Liability for Filing Return

An income tax return must be filed by every citizen of the United States whether residing at home or abroad, and every person residing in the United States, though not a citizen thereof, having a gross income for the calendar year 1926 of $5,000 or over, or a net income for the same period of (a) $1,500 or over, (b) $1,000 or over, (c) $500 or over, or (d) $100 or over, if married and living with husband or wife, or if net income exceeds the personal exemption.

Items Exempt from Tax

(a) Amounts received under a life insurance contract paid by reason of the death of the insured.

(b) Amounts received (other than by reason of the death of the insured) under a life insurance, endowment, or annuity contract, not to exceed the premium or consideration paid for such contract.

(c) Gifts (not made as a consideration for the income from such property taxable and not must be reported).

(d) Interest upon (a) obligations of a State, Territory, or a political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; (b) Federal Farm Loan bonds; and (c) Liberty Bonds owned in excess of $5,000 is subject to surtax if the net income is over $10,000.

(e) Amounts received as accident or health insurance for personal injuries or sickness.

(f) Amounts received under the War Risk Insurance and Vocational Rehabilitation Acts, or the World War Veterans' Act, 1924, or as pensions from the United States for services in the military or naval forces in time of war, or as a State.

(g) Dividends or interest, not exceeding $300, received from domestic building and loan associations, substantially all the business of which is confined to making loans to members.

(h) Amounts received for the purchase of a new dwelling house and appurtenances thereof furnished a minister of the gospel as part of his compensation.

(i) Compensation paid by a State or political subdivision thereof to its officers or employees.

(j) Compensation received from sources without the United States by a citizen who is a nonresident for more than six months of the taxable year.

Personal Exemption and Credits

A single person, or a married person not living with husband or wife, may claim a personal exemption of $1,500. A person who, during the entire taxable year, was the head of a family or was married and living with husband or wife, may claim a personal exemption of $2,000.

A "head of a family" is an individual who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to the support of the taxpayer is dependent upon the maintenance of the taxpayer on some moral or legal obligation.

If husband and wife the separate returns, the personal exemption may be taken by either or divided between them. In addition to the personal exemption, a taxpayer may claim a credit for taxes paid by him or her or by his or her under eighteen years of age, or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective, who was receiving his or her child support from the taxpayer on the last day of the taxable year. This credit can be claimed only by individuals who furnish the child support, and can be divided between two individuals.

In case the status of a taxpayer changes during the taxable year, the personal exemption may be claimed for the taxable year on the basis of the status for the greater number of months during which the taxpayer was single or married, plus any amount which bears the same ratio to $3,500 as the number of months during which the taxpayer was married and living with husband or wife, or was the head of a family, bears to twelve months. For this purpose a fractional part of a month shall be counted as a full month. The amount of personal exemption shall not exceed $3,500 where the head of a family is married during the taxable year.

For a single person, an individual who dies during the taxable year, the credits for personal exemption and dependents shall be determined by his or her status at the time of death. Full credits shall also be allowed to the surviving spouse according to his or her status at the close of the taxable year.

General Information

Affidant.—The oath will be administered without charge by any collector, deputy collector, or internal revenue agent.

Interest.—Enter as Item 2 the amount of interest of Internal Revenue for the district in which you reside on or before March 15, 1927.

Tax.—The tax may be paid at time of filing the return, or to four equal installments payable quarterly.

For willful failure to make and file a return on time, not more than $100.00 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the tax;

For neglect, failure or fraud, or fraudulent return, not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and, in addition, 50 per cent of the amount of the tax; and

For deficiency in tax, interest on deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date of the right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

Income

Salaries.—Enter as Item 1 all salaries, wages, or other compensation received from outside sources by (a) yourself, (b) your husband or wife if a joint return is made, (c) your dependent child, or (d) any other person for whom you are liable for support. Enter as Item 2 all interest received or credited to your account during the year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds, except as Item 2(b) is paid on bonds filed with a "Widow's Certificate on Form 1000" not claiming exemption. The tax of 1½% paid by the debtor corporation on such interest should be entered as Item 16. Interest on bonds is considered income when received. Enter as Item 3 the amount received as dividends on stock of domestic corporations, including your share of such dividends on stock owned by a partnership, or an estate or trust.

Enter as Item 4 the amount of your taxable income, including dividends on stock of foreign corporations, income of an estate or trust, and your share, whether received or not, in the profits of a partnership.

Deductions

Taxes.—Enter as Item 6 all personal state and taxes on property paid during the year. Do not include Federal income taxes, taxes imposed upon sales by the manufacturer, nor taxes claimed as a credit in Item 17 of the return.

Contributions.—Enter as Item 7 any contributions or gifts made during the year for the support of any child, or for the support of any person who is wholly, or partially, or educationally purpose. The amount claimed shall not exceed 15 per cent of the net income computed without the benefit of this deduction. List names of organizations and amounts contributed to each in separate columns. Contributions to religious, charitable, or educational institutions authorized by law, including interest, paid on personal indebtedness.

¹ All corporations are required to file returns regardless of amount of net income or loss, except those specifically exempt as mutual, cooperative, fraternal, civic, charitable, scientific, etc., not operating for profit. From Jan. 1, 1918, to Dec. 31, 1921, personal service corporations were treated as partnerships. Prior and subsequent to said dates, such corporations were taxed as other corporations.

² Net income means "statutory" net income, i. e., the excess of gross income over deductions as defined in the various revenue acts. Net income has been adjusted from time to time as follows:

(b) Dividends of domestic corporations were entirely tax exempt for 1918 and subsequent years.

(c) Net loss for prior year. The revenue act of 1918 provides, in the case of a net loss for any taxable year beginning after Oct. 31, 1918, and ending prior to Jan. 1, 1920, for the deduction of such loss from the net income of the preceding year, a redetermination of taxes for the preceding year being made. If the net loss exceeds the net income for the preceding year the amount of such excess is to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year. For 1921 and subsequent years the revenue acts provide for net loss in any year beginning after Dec. 31, 1920, to be deducted from the net income of the succeeding taxable year and if such net loss exceeds the net income for the succeeding year, the amount of such excess is to be allowed in the next succeeding year.

(d) For insurance companies see special provisions in the various revenue acts.
³ Invested capital within the meaning of the statute is the capital actually paid in to the corporation by the stockholders, including surplus and undivided profits (exclusive of that for the current year), stocks, bonds, and other obligations (other than obligations of the United States) the dividends or interest from which are not included in computing net income, and excluding inadmissible assets. (See art. 331 of Regulations 45.)

1918	1918	$3,000 plus either an amount equal to the average pre-war net income plus or minus 10 per cent of the increase or decrease of invested capital for the taxable year as compared with average pre-war invested capital, or 10 per cent of the invested capital for the taxable year, whichever is greater.	Net income in excess of war profits credit.	80—less amount of excess profits tax.	$10,000	Amount in excess of $10,000 derived from Government contracts made between Apr. 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918.	Excess profits and war profits tax rates of 1918.	Amount paid or accrued.
1918	1919 and 1920					Same as 1919 and 1920.	Same as 1918.	Same as 1918.
1921	1921				10,000	Same as 1919 and 1920.	Same as 1919 and 1920.	Same as 1918 act. ⁷
1924	1922 and 1923							Do. ⁷
1926	1924							Do. ⁷
	1925							Do. ⁷
	1926							Do. ⁷

⁴ If corporation was not in existence during the whole of at least one calendar year during the pre-war period, the credit (with certain exceptions) shall be the sum of $3,000 and an amount equal to the same percentage of invested capital for the taxable year as the average percentage of net income to invested capital for the pre-war period of representative corporations; but such amount shall in no case be less than 10 per cent of the invested capital of the taxpayer for the taxable year. (See sec. 311, act of 1918.)

⁵ Allowed domestic corporations with net income of $25,000 or less.

⁶ Same as 1919 and 1920.

⁷ Beginning with 1921 the credit can not exceed the proportion of the total tax against which the credit is taken that the taxpayer's net income from sources without the United States bears to the entire net income.

⁸ Income of life insurance companies taxable at 12½ per cent.

INCOME AND PROFITS TAXES PAID FOREIGN COUNTRIES OR POSSESSIONS OF THE UNITED STATES

The amounts reported by individuals and corporations for income and profits taxes paid foreign countries or possessions of the United States are shown below. These amounts are tax credits and should be deducted from the net tax shown in the various tables in this report to arrive at the tax payable to the United States.

Income and profits taxes paid foreign countries, 1926

Individual returns.....	$2, 622, 246
Corporation returns.....	21, 653, 994

Income and profits taxes paid foreign countries, 1925

Individual returns.....	$1, 987, 285
Corporation returns.....	20, 139, 995

ESTATE-TAX RETURNS

The following tables are compiled from estate tax returns filed with the bureau in the 12 months ending December 31, 1927, as distinguished from the number of estates of persons who died within the period, the returns not being due until one year after the date of death.

The tax is not imposed upon the property but upon its transfer to others. The transfer is the subject of the tax, not any particular legacy, devise, or distributive share, and the relationship of the beneficiary to the decedent has no bearing upon the tax liability or the extent thereof. The estate tax is not an inheritance tax although popularly referred to as such, the distinction being that the estate tax is imposed on an estate in its entirety.

The gross estate as defined by statute includes transfers made in contemplation of death or intended to take effect at or after death.

The net estate is the gross estate less the sum of authorized deductions, and in the case of resident decedents a specific exemption of $100,000 for individuals who died on or after February 26, 1926, the date the revenue act of 1926 went into effect. Estate tax returns filed under the revenue act of 1926 are allowed a tax credit not to exceed 80 per centum of the total Federal estate tax for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession tax made to any of the several States, Territories, or the District of Columbia. Under the previous revenue acts the specific exemption was $50,000, and under the revenue act of 1924 (effective June 2, 1924) the tax credit for estate, inheritance, legacy, or succession taxes made to any of the several States, Territories, or District of Columbia, was limited to 25 per centum of the total Federal estate tax. Prior to the revenue act of 1924 this tax credit was not allowed. For statistical purposes the returns are distributed into classes on the size of the net estate corresponding to the successive brackets specified in the revenue act of 1926.

The tables are based on the data disclosed by the returns as filed but not as determined upon investigation and audit. The tax shown does not correspond with the actual receipts of taxes during the period for the reason that payments may be made at a later date than the filing of the return and for the further reason that field investigation and office audit may disclose deficiency taxes or excess payments which are not reflected in these tables.

KIND OF BUSINESS

2. Concerns whose business involvement is falling in two or more of the above general classes, where the same product is concerned, should report business as identified in the above categories. For example, a business that manufactures and distributes a product, transports and markets their own product (manufacturing) which own or control their source of materials supply (A), would be identified with manufacturing; concerns in D may control or own the source of supply of materials used exclusively or mainly in their constructive work; concerns in E1 or E2 may own or control the source of their raw materials; concerns in F1 or F2 may own or control their own technology, but their production would identify them with A or B or C.

3. Answers:
 (a) General class (use key letter designation)
 (b) Main income-producing business (give specifically the information called for under each key letter, also whether acting as principal, or as agent on commission; state if inactive or in liquidation).

4. Does the corporation own 95 per cent or more of the outstanding capital stock of another domestic corporation or of other corporations?
5. Is over 95 per cent or more of your outstanding capital stock owned by another corporation?
6. Is 95 per cent or more of your outstanding capital stock as well as 95 per cent or more of the outstanding capital stock of each of the other corporations owned or controlled by the same individual or partnership or by the same family?
7. Are two or more of the corporations substantially the same corporation?

(c) Did the respondent file Forms 831, 832, 833, and 834 for the taxable years 1927 or subsequent taxable years?..... If answer to this question is "yes," these forms will not be required except under the circumstances set forth above; if answers to questions 4, 6, and 6 or to any of them, is "yes," answer to questions 4, 6, and 6 or to any of them, is "yes." procure from the Collector of Internal Revenue for your district Forms 831, 832, 833, and 834. Admissions Schedules 1, 2, 3, and 4, which must be filed in connection therewith, also return to you the answer to each question as shown by the facts returned.

(d) Has the taxpayer been employed at any time during the year ending June 30, 1928, in such capacity as to require filing Form No. 10?

AFFIDAVIT

We, the undersigned, president and treasurer of the corporation for which this return is made, being severally duly sworn, each for himself depose and say that the return, containing the accompanying schedule and statements, has been examined by him and is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true and complete return made in accordance with the provisions of the Internal Revenue Act of 1921 and the Regulations issued under authority thereof.

QUESTIONS

(d) Did substantially the same candidates, as are set out in the Affiliated Schedules filed for 1925 or prior years, obtain during the entire taxable year 1926?

PREDECESSOR BUSINESS

8. Did the corporation file a return under the same name for the preceding taxable year? If not, was the corporation in any way an outgrowth, result, continuation, or reorganization of a business or businesses in existence during this or the preceding taxable year? If answer is "yes," give name and address of each predecessor business.

Basis of Return

9. Is this return made on the basis of actual receipts and disbursements?.....

LIST OF ATTACHED SCHEDULES

10. Enter below a list of all schedules accompanying this return, giving for each a brief title and the schedule number. The name and address of the taxpayer should be placed on each separate schedule accompanying the return.

INSTRUCTIONS

The Instructions Numbered 1 to 24 on this Page Correspond with the Item Numbers on Page 1 of the Return

GROSS INCOME AND DEDUCTIONS

1. Gross sales.—If engaged in trading or manufacturing, enter as Item 1 on page 1 of the return, the gross sales, less goods returned and any allowances or discounts from the sale price.

Railroad corporations, banks, insurance companies, and other corporations engaged in business, and individuals engaged in the production of income, including, or other public officer may submit with the return a statement of income and expenses in the form in which submitted to such officer, in lieu of furnishing the information requested in Items 1 to 23 of the return. In such cases the taxable net income will be reconciled by means of Schedule L on page 4 of the return, with the net profit shown by the income and expense statement submitted, and should be entered as Item 24 on page 1 of the return.

2. Cost of goods sold.—Enter as Item 2 the information requested on lines (a) to (c) of the return. The cost of goods sold should be entered as a separate item included in the amount entered on line (c), the minor item to be grouped in one amount.

If the production, purchase, or sale of merchandise is an income-producing factor in the trade or business, secure from the Collector of Internal Revenue and file as a part of this return a Certificate of Inventory, Form 1126. Enter on lines (a) to (c) of the return the information requested on lines (a) to (c) of the certificate. "C" on line (a) to indicate that the inventories are valued at other cost, or cost or whichever is lower. In case the inventory reported on the return do not agree with these shown on the balance sheet, attach a statement explaining how the difference occurred.

3. Gross profit.—Enter as Item 3 the gross profit from trading or manufacturing, which is obtained by deducting Item 2, the cost of goods sold, from Item 1, the gross sales.

4. Gross profit from other operations.—Enter as Item 4 the gross profit from operations other than trading or manufacturing, selling in the gross provided the nature and amount of the principal items; the minor items should be grouped in one amount.

5. Interest on bank deposits, etc.—Enter as Item 5 all interest received or credited during the taxable year on bank deposits, notes, mortgages, and corporation bonds.

6. Rent.—Enter as Item 6 the gross amount received for the rental of property. Any deductions claimed for repairs, insurance, taxes, and depreciation should be included in Items 14, 15, 16, and 20, respectively.

7. Royalties.—Enter as Item 7 the gross amount received as royalties. If a deduction is claimed for depletion, it should be reported as Item 21.

8. Profit from sale of capital assets.—Enter as Item 8 the amount of gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of real estate, stocks, bonds, and capital assets.

Describe the property briefly in Schedule B, and state the actual consideration or price received, or the fair market value of the property received in exchange. Expenses connected with the sale, such as commissions paid agent, may be deducted in connection with the sale. Enter the gross profit from the sale of capital assets on the original cost of the property, and if it was acquired prior to March 1, 1913, the fair market value as of that date. Attach statement explaining how value as of March 1, 1913, was determined. Expenses incident to the purchase may be included in the cost if never deducted from income.

As depreciation is allowable in case of real estate, wear and tear, obsolescence, and other items which have a determinable useful life, the cost of such property at date of acquisition, or since March 1, 1913, if the property was acquired before that date. In addition, if the property was acquired before March 1, 1913, and if the cost of such property is greater than its fair market value as of that date, the cost shall be reduced by the depreciation actually sustained before that date. See Section 1676 of the Revenue Act of 1921. Depreciation may be claimed for improvements, and repairs made to restore the property or prolong its useful life. Do not deduct ordinary repairs, interest, or taxes in computing gain or loss.

No loss shall be recognized in any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities when the value of such shares or securities immediately preceding the sale is greater than the value of such shares or securities at the date of the sale, unless the corporation is a dealer in stock or securities in the ordinary course of business.

In case the amount to be entered as Item 8 is a deductible loss, such amount should be preceded by a minus sign or written with red ink.

9. Dividends.—Enter as Item 9 the amount received as dividends (a) from a domestic corporation other than a corporation entitled to the benefits of Section 262 of the Revenue Act of 1926 and other than a corporation organized under the laws of the United States, or (b) from a foreign corporation. It is to be shown as such foreign corporation for the three-year period ending with the close of its taxable year preceding the declaration of such dividend (or for such part of such period as the corporation has been in existence) as derived from sources within the United States as defined under Section 217 of the Act.

10. Other income.—Enter as Item 10 all other taxable income for which no place is provided on the return, together with any dividends specifically excluded from Item 9.

11. Total income.—Enter the net amount of Items 3 to 10, inclusive, after deducting any losses reported in Items 8, 9, and 10.

12. Compensation of officers.—Enter as Item 12 the compensation of all officers, in whatever form paid, and fill in Schedule C, giving the information requested.

13. Real estate.—Enter as Item 13 rent paid for business property in which the corporation has no equity.

14. Repairs.—Enter as Item 14 the cost of incidental repairs, including the labor, materials, and other items which do not add to the value of the property, but which are necessary to keep the property in a state of repair, and for the purpose of permanent improvements or betterments which increase the value of the property are chargeable to capital account. Expenditures for restoring or replacing property are not deductible, as such expenditures are chargeable to capital account or to depreciation reserve, depending on how depreciation is charged on the books of the corporation.

List in Schedule D the principal items of cost, grouping the minor items in one amount.

15. Interest.—Enter as Item 15 interest paid on business indebtedness. Do not include interest on indebtedness incurred or continued to purchase or carry obligations or securities the interest upon which is wholly exempt from taxation.

16. Taxes.—Enter as Item 16 taxes paid or accrued during the taxable year. Do not include Federal income taxes, income and profits taxes claimed as a credit in Item 23, taxes assessed against local benefits tending to increase the value of the property assessed, Federal taxes paid on bonds containing a war-time covenant, nor taxes levied by the Government on the production of income.

List in Schedule E each item of taxes deducted.

17. Losses by fire, storm, etc.—Enter as Item 17 the net loss arising from fire, storm, shipwreck, or other casualty, or from theft, and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

Expenses claimed in Schedule F.

18. Bad debts.—Enter as Item 18 debts, or portions thereof, arising from sales or services that have been reflected in income, which have been definitely ascertained to be worthless and have been charged off within the year, by such reasonable amount as has been added to a reserve for bad debts within the year, or such reasonable amount as has been charged off and still has been determined to be worthless, showing the amount charged off and still has been determined to be worthless.

If the amount deducted is in addition to a reserve, Schedule G should be filled in giving the information requested.

A debt previously charged off as a deduction, if subsequently collected, must be returned as income for the year in which collected.

19. Dividends.—Enter as Item 19 the dividends described in Instruction 9 which were reported as income in Item 9.

Describe in Schedule H any dividends claimed as a deduction.

20. Depreciation.—The amount deductible on account of depreciation in Item 20 is an amount fairly measuring the portion of the investment in depreciable property by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence, which is properly chargeable against the taxable income for the year. The prior year's depreciation chargeable against the taxable income for the year should be determined as determined upon the basis of the original cost (not replacement cost) of the property, and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life. In case the property was purchased prior to March 1, 1913, the amount of depreciation will be determined in the same manner except that it will be computed on its original cost, or the fair market value at the time of acquisition, or the purchase price as determined, as required by any other manner than by purchase price. Section 204 of the Revenue Act of 1926. The capital gain to be replaced should be charged off over the useful life of the property either in equal annual installments or in accordance with any other recognized trade practice, such as an apportionment over units of production. Whatever plan or method of apportionment is adopted must be reasonable and consistent and should be described in the return. Stocks, bonds, and like securities are not subject to exhaustion, wear and tear within the meaning of the law.

If a deduction is claimed on account of depreciation Schedule I shall be filled in, and the total amount claimed therein should correspond with the figures reflected in the balance sheet. In case obsolescence is claimed as a deduction, the depreciation chargeable against the taxable income must not be included in this schedule. See Articles 161 to 170 of Regulations 69.

21. Depreciation.—If a deduction is claimed on account of depletion, secure from the Collector, Form D (mineral), Form E (oil), Form F (miscellaneous nonminerals), Form G (timber), or Form T (timber), fill in and file with return. If complete Form O-3 (oil and gas), or Form T (timber), fill in and file with return. If complete valuation data have been filed with the Commissioner in previous years, then file with this return information necessary to bring your depletion schedule up to date, setting forth in full statement of all transactions bearing on depletion, and adding to value the depletion chargeable against the taxable income for the year. The method adopted shall be determined. See Articles 201 to 217 and 1602 of Regulations 69.

22. Other deductions.—Enter any other deductions authorized by law and file with this return a statement showing how each deduction was computed. If a deduction is claimed on account of a net loss for prior year, see Article 1222 of Regulations 69.

23. Total income.—Enter the total of Items 12 to 22, inclusive.

24. Net income.—Enter as Item 24 the net income, which is obtained by deducting Item 23 from Item 11. The net income should be entered in the same manner as the total income, in connection with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books, unless such method does not clearly reflect the income.

COMPUTATION OF TAX

25. The tax is computed upon the amount of net income in excess of the credit of $2,000 which may be claimed in Item 26 by a domestic corporation having a net income of less than $25,270. In case the taxable net income is less than $25,270, the corporation may elect to have the credit of $2,000 fully refunded to an amount which bears the same ratio to the full credit as the number of months for which the return is made bears to twelve months. For the credit allowed for the payment of any taxes found due if the taxes when paid differ from the credit claimed. A foreign corporation is not entitled to claim credit for taxes paid to a foreign country.

CREDIT FOR TAXES

26. A foreign corporation subject to taxation and not engaged in a trade or business within the United States and not having any income from sources within the United States and not having any income which is required to be deducted and withheld in the source.

27. If a credit is claimed by a domestic corporation in Item 32 on account of income and profits taxes already paid to a foreign country or a possession of the United States, a copy of Form 1113, completely filled in and sworn to must be submitted with this return, together with the receipt for each such tax paid, as certified by the collector of the foreign country, or the collector of the United States, in case credit is sought for taxes each such accrued tax was based, and as a condition precedent to the allowance of this credit, the Commissioner may require the expenditure to give a bond on Form 1119, conditioned for the payment of any taxes found due if the taxes when paid differ from the credit claimed. A foreign corporation is not entitled to claim credit for taxes paid to a foreign country.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. COMPANIES REQUIRED TO FILE A RETURN

Every domestic or foreign life insurance company that derives income from sources within the United States, issuing life and annuity contracts (including life, health, and accident insurance), the reserve funds of which held for the fulfillment of such contracts comprise more than 50 per cent of its total reserve funds, shall file a return on this form. See Articles 661 to 687, inclusive, Regulations 69, and Sections 242 to 245, inclusive, of the Revenue Act of 1926.

2. ANNUAL STATEMENT

A copy of the annual statement for life insurance companies adopted by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners for the year 1926, as filed with the Insurance Department of the State in which the company is located, together with copies of Schedule A (real estate) and Schedule D (bonits and stocks), must accompany this return. Similar copies for the preceding year must be also furnished, if not filed with the return for the previous year.

3. BASIS OF RETURN

A return on this form shall be rendered on a cash receipts and disbursements basis in conformity with the annual statement made to the State Insurance Department, instead of the accrual basis.

4. LIMITATION OF TAX

If the net income of a domestic company reported as Item 15, Schedule A, is more than $25,000, the tax of 12½ per cent imposed by Section 243 of the Act on the amount of the net income shall not exceed the tax which would be payable if the $2,000 credit were allowed, plus the amount of the net income in excess of $25,000.

5. PERIOD COVERED

The return shall be for the calendar year ended December 31, 1926, and the net income computed on the calendar year basis in accordance with the State laws regulating insurance companies.

6. TIME AND PLACE FOR FILING

The return must be sent to the collector of Internal revenue for the district in which the company's principal office is located, so as to reach the collector's office on or before March 15, 1927, in the case of a foreign company not having any office or place of business in the United States, and on or before June 15, 1927, in the case of a company having an office or place of business in the United States. The Commissioner may, at his discretion, require a company to file a return, if application therefor is made before the date prescribed by law for filing such return, whenever in his judgment, good cause exists.

7. AFFIDAVIT

The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice president, or other principal officer, and by the treasurer or assistant treasurer. The return of a foreign company having an agent in the United States shall be sworn to by such agent.

8. PAYMENT OF TAX

The tax should be paid by sending or bringing with the return a check or money order drawn to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue at (insert name of city and State)."

Do not send cash through the mail nor pay it in person except at the office of the collector.

The total tax may be paid at the time of filing the return or in four equal installments, as follows:

9. PENALTIES

For wilful failure to make and file a return on time.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both, and, in addition, 25 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For willfully making a false or fraudulent return.—Not more than $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than five years, or both, and, in addition, 50 per cent of the amount of the tax.

For deficiency in tax.—Interest on deficiency at 6 per cent per annum to the date the deficiency is assessed, or to the thirtieth day after the filing of a waiver of the right to file a petition with the Board of Tax Appeals, whichever date is the earlier, and, in addition, 5 per cent of the amount of the deficiency if due to negligence or intentional disregard of rules and regulations without intent to defraud, or 50 per cent of amount of deficiency if due to fraud.

10. QUESTIONS

1. Date of incorporation
2. Under the laws of what State or country?
3. Did the company file a return under the same name for the preceding taxable year? If not, was the company in any way an outgrowth, rent, continuation, or reorganization of a business or businesses in existence during this or the preceding taxable year? If answer is "yes," give name and address of each predecessor business:

4. State the amount of deferred dividend funds at the end of the taxable year, exclusive of any amount held for payments during the following taxable year: $.....
5. Describe the method used for determining the investment expenses shown in Item 9, Schedule A:
6. Is the above method the same as that used in preparing the Gain and Loss Exhibit for 1925? If not, state what change was made and the reason therefor:
7. Are any general expenses in part assigned to or included in the investment expenses shown to Item 9, Schedule A?

II. INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING IN SCHEDULE A

Report in column 2 all business transacted in connection with life insurance, and in column 3 any other class of insurance.
Interest received.—Enter as Item 1 interest actually received from all sources during the taxable year.

Dividends.—Enter as Item 2 dividends actually received on stock of domestic and foreign corporations.

the rental value of the space occupied in any building owned by the company. In case the rental value of a building so occupied is not included in this amount, no deduction on account of such building is allowable for taxes, other expenses, and depreciation in Items 10, 11, and 12, of Schedule A. If these deductions are claimed, a schedule similar to the following should be furnished for each building occupied:

1. Location of building _____ $ _____
2. Book value at end of taxable year _____ $ _____
3. Gross rental for year, including 4 _____, the rental value of space occupied by the company _____ $ _____
4. Less: Taxes _____ $ _____
5. Depreciation _____ $ _____
6. Other expenses _____ $ _____
7. Total of Lines 4, 5, and 6 _____ $ _____
8. Net income from rentals (Line 7 minus Line 6) _____ $ _____

Interest exempt from taxation.—Enter as Item 5 the amount of interest received on the following obligations which are exempt from taxation: (1) Obligations of a State, Territory, or any political subdivision thereof, or the District of Columbia; (2) Securities issued under the provisions of the Federal Farm Loan Act or under the provisions of such Act as amended; or (3) Obligations of the United States or its possessions.

Submit schedule showing separately for each class of securities, (a) name of obligor, (b) amount of securities, and (c) amount of interest received thereon.

Dividends—Enter at Item 7 the total amount of dividends deductible under Section 245(c) of the Act. A schedule should be submitted showing the amount received as dividends: (a) from each domestic corporation other than a corporation controlled by the taxpayer and a corporation controlled by the same person or persons as the taxpayer; (b) from each foreign corporation; (c) from each partnership; (d) from each trust; (e) from each estate; (f) from each other entity. Enter the amount by which Item 11, Schedule C, exceeds Item 7. See Reg. 1.1361-6(b)(2)(ii).

Two per cent of the reserve held for deferred dividends.—Enter as Item 8 an amount equal to 2 per cent of the reserve held at the end of the taxable year for deferred dividends the payment of which is deferred for a period of not less than five years from the date of the policy contract. Do not include in such reserve any dividends payable during the year following the taxable year.

Investment expenses.—Enter as Item 9 expenses paid which are properly chargeable to investment expenses, the total amount of which, if there be any allocation of general expenses to investment expenses, should not exceed one-fourth of per cent of the mean of the invested assets reported in Item 11, Schedule D. Submit a schedule showing the nature and amount of the items included therein, the minor items being grouped in one amount. See Article 683 of Regulations 60.

Taxes.—Enter as Item 10 taxes paid exclusively upon real estate owned by the company, and that proportion of the taxes assessed against individual shareholders and paid by the company without reimbursement, as provided in Article 684 of Kentucky Statutes, and as provided in Article 685 of Kentucky Statutes, and as provided in Regulations 69. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the tax-exempt property, as provided in Regulations 69. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the tax-exempt property, as provided in Regulations 69. Do not include taxes assessed against local benefits of a kind tending to increase the value of the tax-exempt property, as provided in Regulations 69.

Other real estate expenses.—Enter as Item 11 all ordinary and necessary building expenses, such as fire insurance, heat, light, labor, etc., and the cost of incidents and repairs which neither materially add to the value of the property nor appreciably prolong its life, but keep it in an ordinarily efficient operating condition. Do not

Depreciation.—If a deduction is made on account of depreciation in Item 12 of the following schedule must be filled in and the total amount claimed therein should correspond with the figures reflected in the company's books.

The amount deductible on account of depreciation is an amount charged which fairly measures the loss during the year by reason of exhaustion, wear and tear, or obsolescence in the company's investment in property used in the business. Such an amount should be determined upon the basis of the cost of the property, or if purchased prior to April 1, 1913, the cost or value at that date, whichever is greater; and the probable number of years remaining of its useful life. Land values must not be included in this schedule. Stocks, bonds, and like securities are not subject to depreciation within the meaning of the law.

[illegible]

NOTE.—If obsolescence is a factor in determining this deduction, attach a statement showing the amount claimed for the taxable year and the basis upon which computed.

13. LIST OF ATTACHED SCHEDULES

Attach a list of the schedules accompanying this return, giving for each a brief title and the schedule number. Place name and address of company on each schedule.

Table 1 is based upon returns of estates of resident decedents distributed by size of net estate, showing number of returns, form of property owned by the decedent at the time of death, and nature of deductions entered in the returns under the provisions of the law, net taxable estate, total tax, tax credit and net tax after deducting tax credit.

Table 2 distributes the returns of estates of resident decedents by States and Territories. It shows the total number of returns and aggregate gross estate, net estate, deductions, total tax, tax credit, and net tax after deducting tax credit, as well as the distribution by estates subject to tax and those not subject to tax.

Table 2-A shows the same distribution as Table 2 for estates of resident decedents whose date of death was after February 26, 1926. (Taxed under revenue act of 1926.)

Table 2-B shows the same distribution as Table 2 for estates of resident decedents whose date of death was after June 2, 1924, and prior to February 26, 1926. (Taxed under revenue act of 1924.)

Table 2-C shows the same distribution as Table 2 for estates of resident decedents whose date of death was prior to June 2, 1924. (Taxed under revenue acts in force prior to the revenue act of 1924.)

Table 3 shows returns of estates of resident decedents distributed by size of net estate, giving the number of returns, gross and net estate, deductions, total tax, tax credit, and net tax after deducting tax credit.

Table 4 shows the returns of estates of nonresident decedents distributed by the size of the net estate, the situs of which is in the United States, giving the number of returns, gross and net estate in the United States, tax, tax credit, and net tax after deducting tax credit.
